

Study Questions—Module 2
Overview of OBQI

1. Which of the following does NOT describe an outcome:

- A. A change in health status that occurs over time
- B. A change that is intrinsic to the patient
- C. A change in a patient's environment that improves ADL functioning
- D. A change that results from the care provided or the natural progression of disease

2. OBQI differs from traditional quality assurance activities in all but one of the following ways:

- A. The focus of OBQI is on what happens to patients
- B. OBQI was designed to meet minimal regulatory standards
- C. OBQI is a continuous quality improvement (CQI) process
- D. OBQI involves the entire organization, rather than just a few individuals

3. The OBQI process begins by collecting and transmitting OASIS data.

- A. True
- B. False

4. The “quality improvement” phase of OBQI is referred to as:

- A. Quality assurance
- B. Outcome enhancement
- C. Outcome analysis
- D. Process improvement

Study Question Answers—Module 2
Overview of OBQI

1. C
2. B
3. A
4. B