

Home Health Keys For Success

Thursday, February 23, 2006

8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Health Services Advisory Group (HSAG)
1600 East Northern Avenue, Suite 100
Phoenix, Arizona 85020

OBJECTIVES

- Describe two problems related to medication use in older adults.
- Identify one reason why medication simplification is important in the care of older adults.
- Describe the Quality Medication Administration Project (QMAP).
- Explain regulations regarding oral medications and hospitalization.
- Identify the three stages of monitoring for successful Plans of Action (POAs).
- Understand the available Data Collection Tools.

AGENDA

7:30 a.m. Registration, Networking, and Continental Breakfast

8:00 a.m. Welcome and IntroductionsPatricia Burt, RN, BSN, CPHQ
Clinical Quality Specialist, HSAG

8:15 a.m. Medication Management, Simplification,Stephen Winbery, PhD, MD and the Older Adult
Medical Director, QSource

9:00 a.m. Questions and AnswersAll Participants

9:15 a.m. QMAP Marianne Canady, RN, MA
Director, Home Health QI Program, HSAG

9:30 a.m. Break

9:45 a.m. Oral Medication and Hospitalization RegulationsLynn Turner, RN
Licensing Team Leader, ADHS

10:15 a.m. Monitoring your POA.....Patricia Burt
Data Collection Tools

11:30 a.m. Awards Program Marianne Canady

12:00 p.m. Wrap-up, Evaluation, and Next Steps